Prayer Concerns for the Week

- All of those recovering or suffering from medical issues, physical and emotional, including Bill Jack; Anita Ledford; John Reid; Bill Harris; Peggy Almond; Ben and Emily Ousley; Drew Franta; Betty Harris; Tony Hamrick; Bill Story; Keith Ross; Naushaba Samuels; Suzy Buckner; and Ann McDaniel
- We pray for those who experience injustice. Give us hearts of compassion to stand united with all people, treating each other as brothers and sisters, seeing the image of God in all.
- We pray for our world as we battle the Coronavirus. Be with those affected and their communities. Protect our medical personnel and researchers, giving wisdom and strength. Pray for our school children and families, teachers, school staff, and administrators as they began a new school year so different than years past. May our college students stay safe and smart. Shield our elderly and those with health issues making them more susceptible. Be with those who are caring for us - 1st responders: paramedics, firefighters, police, EMTs; grocery store employees; delivery drivers; and so many more
- For caregivers carrying more burdens than we may understand
- Those who grieve. We pray for the families of Lynda Bradley and Rev. Larry Barden, father of Pastor Mark as well as Margaret Chambless as she continues to grieve her husband, Bill. May God grant peace.
- Our shut-ins and others feeling isolated. May we be arms reaching out, enfolding them into the body of Christ.
- The church universal and the United Methodist Church. May God's Spirit lead and direct, reminding us that the church is not a walled community but a living body of believers. And Central UMC, staff and leaders as they continue to lead our church.
- Our government and world leaders in making decisions regarding the safety of all people. Give them insight and discernment in this time of health and economic crisis
- We pray for peace in our world, nation and communities
- The ministries of Central United Methodist Church. We pray for Kids Place Preschool as a new year begins this coming week. Be with our staff, students and families as the children grow in wisdom and strength. May we provide Christian education and unconditional love to our preschoolers.
- And all of the prayer concerns each person holds in their hearts
